NEXT MEETING: Walton Manor WI

WHEN; Tuesday 9th June

WHERE: St Margaret's Institute, Polstead Rd

TIME: 7.30pm for 8pm start

SPEAKER: The Sense of Hearing - David Peel

David Peel is a professional speaker, retired broadcaster, and founder of The Sense of Hearing. He frequently delivers informative, engaging talks to local Women's Institute (WI) groups and community organizations, focusing on auditory health, hearing checks, and the impact of hearing loss as an invisible disability.

David has gained an enormous amount of experience working for over 20 yrs in the hearing aid industry at a senior level.

LAST MONTH'S MEETING

The evening took the form of a race to complete the Jigsaw Puzzle. Members were split into 5 tables with 5/6 members each trying to complete the puzzle. Susan Henderson's table won.

Well done!

WALKING GROUP

Julie, Susan and Margaret had a super walk starting from Julie's house at Oddington and meandering through the lanes. We walked through the small village of Noke. It was good to see the wetland marshes that David Wilding from the Otmoor Nature Reserve had spoken about at our June meeting last year.

Please see the walkers WhatsApp group for details of our June walk.
